No. 15-60669 NLRB v. VCNCL, L.L.C.
USDC No. 15-CA-144945

Dear Ms. Beard,

On February 8, 2016, we received the first brief by the NLRB.

In light of the fact that on same date the NLRB filed a duplicate brief marked "Corrected Brief," the Court will accept & process the "Corrected Brief," and will take no action on this first brief filed.

In the future, the Court request that counsel DO NOT file duplicate docket events in a case. Instead, if counsel discovers an error in a docket event filed, or an error in the image attached thereto, counsel must contact the Court immediately to seek direction on how to correct the error. If an error is discovered after Court hours and it is not an emergency filing, counsel must contact the Court on the next business day, during normal business hours for guidance. Most corrections can be made via e-mail, or by the Court performing internal maintenance on a docket event.

Sincerely,

LYLE W. CAYCE, Clerk
